COLLIN MAN FOUND DEAD NEAR HOME

Believed Heart Attack Caused Death Tuesday of J. O. Renfrow.

J. O. Renfrow, 63, resident of Collin county for several years, was found dead near his home about five miles northwest of McKinney at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Renfrow left his home early Tuesday with his team for the purpose of cutting some wood in the bottom land nearby. When his team came home at noon, pulling the traces without their owner, members of the family became alarmed and immediately instituted a search. They found him that afternoon in a slumped position near where he had been cutting wood.

It is believed he succumbed from a heart attack.

County Attorney W. C. Dowdy, Sheriff G. J. S. Walker, Justice of the Peace Erwin Craus, and Dr. R. L. Davis, county health officer, went out to the scene, where Mr. Renfrow had been found dead and made an investigation. It was their opinion he died from natural causes, presumably from a heart attack.

Funeral services for the deceased were held at Plano Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment following in the Plano cemetery, under direction of the C. C. Harris Funeral home. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Hilger and by Rev. A. L. Leake.

Belle on the Beach

It isn't only the sun that acts as a magnet in the balmy South; the scenery, too, has something to do with it. For instance, Mahnette Rucker adds a charming decorative note to the landscape at Miami, Fla. She is wearing the very latest thing in beach attire, and it looks okay to us.

FEDERAL REFINANCE CORPORATION FUNDS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF WILL BE AVAILABLE HERE AT ONCE

Mayor Perkins and Commissioners Bryan and Brockman Will Use City's Portion Largely for Additional Street Paving; T. E. Craig, Collin County Chairman, and F. Dudley Perkins, Precinct Chairman, Gladly Contribute Their Services Without Reward.

He Is Precinct Chairman

F. DUDLEY PERKINS, City Precinct Chairman.

As quite a few people are in dire need of work, the city commission, working 100 per cent in cooperation with those having charge of procuring for our county and city several thousand dollars from the Reconstruction Finance corporation unemployment fund of the federal government. Plans were perfected Tuesday, whereby immediate work and relief will be given after the money comes to hand.

County Commissioner Don O. Davis of this city, representing County Judge J. F. Harrington and the county commissioners' court, met with the city commission at this important gathering.

T. E. Craig, County Chairman.

Thomas E. Craig, outstanding and influential business man, is chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation federal unemployment fund for the government for Collin county. F. Dudley Perkins, than whom McKinney has no more enterprising, faithful and hardworking citizen for the advancement of our city to give relief, is chairman for McKinney and this precinct.

Much of this work has devolved upon handling these funds, there being considerable "red tape," all of which is demanded by the federal government and must be carried "out to the letter."

The Reconstruction Finance corporation unemployment funds can be used only for labor on the streets, and for the relief of the absolutely "down and out people," who are sick and who can not work, and for the unemployed.

Good Work by C. of C.

W. Hammond Moore, the very efficient secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Howard S. Ware, president of the Chamber of Commerce, have devoted and are giving much of their valuable time to the successful carrying out of the government's wishes in our city and county.

At the meeting of the city commission Tuesday, the funds which will be received from the R. F. C. unemployment fund in this precinct, it was announced as the intention of Mayor Perkins and Commissioners Bryan and Brockman, to provide labor in helping to pave several streets in the city, extend the waterworks in a limited way, and do everything in their power for the immediate relief of our citizenry who actually need help and work during this unusual emergency and who can not find employment otherwise.

The city commission has given instructions to Superintendent W. C. Mills of the street force to start work at once on the twelve hundred feet of paving on South Waddill and Lee streets, and the work will be pushed to completion as fast as possible under winter weather conditions.

North Coleman to Be Paved.

The city commission also ordered about one thousand feet paved on Short street, in South McKinney, which runs from Wilcox to South Tennessee, connecting up some long needed paving in that section of the city. The commission will order some other streets paved as fast as possible, under weather conditions, and as necessary expense therefor can be financed without imposition of additional taxes.

The pavement will be of a rock basis, about six or seven inches, and will be obtained from Collin county rock quarries, thereby providing a maximum of local labor employment.

The city has to furnish the material of all kinds, and the money procured from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Unemployment Relief Fund will only go to pay for the labor.

Dudley Perkins, McKinney Chmn.

The Chamber of Commerce offices will be the headquarters for the working out of this Federal aid relief funds, being under the management in McKinney and surrounding territory of F. Dudley Perkins, chairman of this precinct. Mr. Perkins will be ably assisted by W. Hammond Moore, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

All people desiring work can call at the Chamber of Commerce rooms and interview Mr. Perkins and Mr. Moore.

All details and information desired will be given to those wantting by these gentlemen.

Working Unselfishly.

Fortunate, indeed, is our city and county in being able to procure this money to give necessary relief to our citizens, who are sorely in need of temporary work and something to eat. This work will not be of a permanent character, but only a few days work at a reasonable wage, which is set by the government, can be given out.

It is a wonderful movement on behalf of Mr. Craig, F. Dudley Perkins, H. S. Ware, President; W. Hammond Moore, Secretary, in giving their time free as they are all busy business men—to the relief, without fee or reward, because not a one connected with it, will receive five cents out of it—only the satisfaction that they are doing something for the good of suffering humanity.

Work To Begin At Once.

Superintendent W. C. Mills will have entire charge of all labor and work done by the city by order given by Mayor Perkins and Commissioners Bryan and Brockman.

Work on paving the streets, as outlined above, and other work, to be done, will be mapped out as fast as details can be gotten out by Mayor Perkins and Commissioners Bryan and Brockman, who are devoting most of their time to getting the good work going.

We feel reasonably sure that our entire citizenship will have nothing but praise, good will and happy cheer, for these good men, who are working to aid those who are badly in need of immediate assistance and the absolute necessities of life.

Other Parts County Also Aided.

Each city and community center in the entire county will take care of its own communities, under the direction of County Chairman Thos. E. Craig and their local citizens of the particular community.

Each community will give work and aid to those living in its particular community, only.

Only people living in McKinney and this immediate vicinity will be given work, so that there may be no conflicting or overlapping of relief work.

Let us all do our part, work in one hundred per cent co-operation with each other, and we will all be happy and no one will go hungry.

The County Commissioners' court, represented by Commissioner Don O. Davis at the meeting the City Commission of McKinney, as well as all towns and communities in our county, are working harmoniously together.

Mr. Montgomery was with the Collin County National bank for two years, prior to going into the used car business. He has, for the past four years, been engaged in that line of business on the Coffey lot on East Virginia street. He is a native of East Texas, Sulphur Springs being his home. He has been a resident and business man of our city for more than six years, [illegible] the daughter of Don [illegible] the latter being a most [illegible] ous farmer living three [illegible] of the city. He is a [illegible] of good bearing, polite, [illegible] and affable, and no [illegible] entire city has [illegible] success than Earl [illegible] He is deserving.

Mrs. Eugene Browning and little daughter, Corinne, of Plano, are visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Newsome.

W. Murdock left this afternoon for Weatherford to attend the funeral of Miss Annie Irwen, a good friends of many years.

Wiley Ball, a Daily Courier-Gazette carrier boy on Route 2, has returned from a visit to his brother, Villary Ball, at Greenville.

[illegible] He is a brother-in-law of Rev. G. O. Key of McKinney. Both of the editors of these papers have been personal friends of John H. Cullom of many years' standing.

Fire, which originated in the tire and accessory automobile shop of O. A. Brannon on South Tennessee street at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, brought out McKinney volunteer fire department on a quick run. Very little damage was reported. The blaze resulted from sparks escaping from a stove pipe near the roof of the building.

[illegible] Mr. McGee was at the home of [illegible] Welch, residing south of the city, and was engaged in shooting some Roman candles, one of which exploded in his hand. The accident caused him considerable pain, but his friends will be glad to learn that he is feeling much better now.

Jess Stiff and Homer Haggard have leased the building to be occupied by the Gulf Refining company, formerly occupied by the Hamilton-Patterson Motor company, and will occupy same during 1933. Carl Herron will be with Mr. Stiff and Mr. Haggard. Both Mr. Stiff and Mr. Haggard are first-class mechanics and will do all kinds of automobile repairing.

[illegible] Reddell, popular agent [illegible] accompanied by his wife and son Harold, spent several days in Abilene, the guests of Mrs. Reddell's brother and family, J. H. Moore.

Mrs. Roy Largent and little niece, Marie Hamilton, are both confined to their home on North Church street with the flu. They were reported to be improving Wednesday. Mrs. Largent's mother, Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, has also been ill, but is now able to be up.

M'KINNEY'S CHIEF CIVIC BODY BUSY ON JOB

The last monthly board of directors meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce was held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, Dec. 30, with President Howard S. Ware of that organization in the chair and Secretary W. Hammond Moore keeping the minutes.

Reports were received on the road situation in this county in the way of highway improvements, the report being made by A. H. Eubanks, chairman of the good roads committee. He stated that around $20,000 had been recently appropriated by the highway commission for rebuilding and reconditioning roads in the county. He thinks some progress is being made on getting the right-of-way and other preliminaries out of the way to widening State Highway No. 6 from McKinney to the Collin-Dallas county line.

Secretary Moore reported that Collin county's application for the Federal Refinance corporation loan quota to be used for public works in relieving unemployment and for direct aid to the needy had been allowed and the money would be on hand in the next few days. The county made application for $22,000, but this amount was scaled about $8,000.

Walter B. Wilson, county Red Cross chairman, reported that the annual roll call during November has netted around 600 members in that worthy organization for the ensuing year.

The scope of the work of the local Chamber of Commerce really covers the entire county as definitely as it does McKinney, taking into consideration the varied interests of the county at large.

County Farm Agent Jack McCullough was present and by invitation made a few remarks. He thanked the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations over the county for the encouragement and cooperation they had given him during the year just closing.

President Howard Ware informed the directors that preliminaries are now under way for the annual membership meeting to be held early in January.

It is difficult to estimate the real worth of the varied activities of thhe Chamber of Commerce to the city and entire county in every way during the year just coming to a close. Its importance is all the more helpful during the depression that has been prevailing during the past three years. Without its constant vigilance and faithful, full-time work conditions would have been much worse than they have been, with every class and group of our citizenship.

JUDGE NOBLE QUITS BENCH FOR BANKING

After fifteen years of service as county auditor and then two terms of four years as county judge of Grayson county, Judge Allie S. Noble of Sherman has retired and will henceforth direct his attention and activities to the banking business. He has been elected vice president and director of the Central State bank of Sherman of which institution B. B. Willbanks is president and G. I. Wilcox is on the board of directors. Willbanks was for sometime connected with the Central State bank in McKinney before going to Sherman, he being a son of the late Rev. J. B. Willbanks of Blue Ridge, prominent Baptist minister.

G. I. Wilcox is also a former Collin county resident having lived at Melissa, Plano, and McKinney before going to Sherman.

Judge Noble is himself a native of Collin county, having been born near Cottage Hill. His father, John S. Noble, and wife, came to Texas in 1852 and settled in that section of Collin county. His father was known far and wide as "Parson" Noble, a pioneer Methodist preacher. He is buried on the old Parson Noble home farm about ten miles northwest of McKinney.

After graduating from the Pilot Point seminary he went to Preston Bend where he taught school for several years and in addition was engaged in farming and ginning. Retaining the gin, he was engaged in the general mercantile business at Preston Bend until in August, 1913, he was appointed county auditor of Grayson county in which position he served continuously for fifteen years.

Judge Noble's newspaper experience as a boy was with the old Pilot Point Mirror, where he served as foreman and set many lines of type by hand. When the paper was sold out, Judge Noble went with the editor to Dallas and was shop foreman for the Oak Cliff Sunday Weekly, Oak Cliff's first newspaper.

For fifteen years Judge Noble has been teacher of the Travis Street Methodist Bible class which bears his name He is a Kiwanian, Elk, Odd Fellow, Woodmen of the World, and Rebekah, a member of the Blue and Chapter Masonic lodges, and a Democrat.

Judge Noble has numerous friends in this county who admire his varied abilities and fine Christian character. He is a man of exceedngly pleasing personality and a popular public speaker and entertainer. He has appeared before the McKinney Rotary club as speaker and often is heard on church and fraternal programs, both as a speaker and a singer who possesses a rare and cultivated voice as a bass singer.

PLANO NEGRO KILLED RAIDING TURKEY ROOST

Will Taylor (colored) died in a Dallas hospital Wednesday night from gunshot wounds received about 12 o'clock Tuesday night.

Following the shooting the negro was rushed to the Dallas hospital by companions. Neither Taylor nor his companions would tell attendants where the shooting occurred or who fired the shot. Early Wednesday morning hospital attendants called Sheriff Ed Blakeman at McKinney and told him of the serious condition of the negro and his refusal to divulge any information concerning the shooting.

It later developed that the shooting occurred at the Clyde Thompson farm home in the Baccus community.

Mr. Thompson visited this office Wednesday morning, and said that about 12 o'clock Tuesday night he heard a noise in his turkey roost. He armed himself with his shotgun and proceeded to investigate.

Shortly two men appeared on the scene, having already stolen five of his turkeys which they had taken down into the pasture and left with another negro. Thompson leveled his gun at the fleeing culprits and fired. Taylor was hit in the neck and in the small of the back. The companion, Thompson believes, was also wounded. They managed to get to their car parked some distance from the house and made their getaway, going to the Dallas hospital.

Mr. Thompson, during the recent big snow, had twenty-two of his fine turkeys stolen.

This chicken and turkey stealing must be stopped and about the best and most effective way of breaking it up is for our farmers to be prepared and greet the thieves with a warm reception as did our good friend Clyde Thompson.

Taylor had lived in and around Plano for several years. Officers state that he had served time in the penitentiary and on the county road.—Plano Star-Courier.

G. I. Wilcox, president of the Sherman Democrat Printing company, has received word of the death of his brother, G. B. Wilcox, which occurred at the latter's home Wednesday, Dec. 28, at Scottsboro, Ala. Other survivors are a brother, J. D. Wilcox, living northeast of McKinney, and Mrs. R. H. Bellew of Melissa. G. I. Wilcox formerly lived in McKinney, at Melissa, and in Plano in this county before going to Sherman.

ED BLAKEMAN IS APPRECIATIVE OF COURTESIES

ED BLAKEMAN.

Retiring Sheriff Ed Blakeman dropped in to visit the Daily Courier-Gazette and the Weekly Democrat-Gazette last Monday. He has just closed eight years' service as sheriff of Collin county and the county never had a more faithful, fine, polite sheriff. He has been an officer in the county for twenty years, being city marshal of Nevada, deputy sheriff of that precinct, deputy sheriff, and is now just closing eight years as sheriff.

He stated that he went out with no hatred in his heart for anyone. But, on the contrary, with deep affection and gratitude for the entire citizenship who had treated him so kindly and well while he was an officer and sheriff. He has made no plans as yet for the future but will still remain a citizen of our town and county. Mr. Blakeman is popular with our entire citizenship and goes out with the respect, confidence, and esteem of them all.

M. H. S. Lassies Chalk Up Fifth Season Victory

By overwhelmingly defeating the Allen High Eaglettes, the McKinney High Lionesses won their fifth straight game of the season here Tuesday night. The score was 73 to 5. After a lapse of play for about three weeks the locals returned for their first game and displayed one of the fastest and most beautiful passing attacks ever displayed by a Collin county team on the local court.

The Lionesses led 31 to 3 at the end of the first quarter, 34 to 3, at the half, and 50 to 5 at the end of the third quarter.

Mrs. Alexander let her entire squad play, each girl getting to play at least one quarter.

Mrs. J. T. Bell residing on South Tennessee street, and daughters, Misses Bessie and Vivian Bell, had a very happy New Year's family reunion on Sunday. Those present were Claude D. Teacher Large Men's Class

PROF. W. S. SMITH.

MEN'S CLASS OF FIRST BAPTIST NAMES OFFICERS

The men's Bible class of the First Baptist church on Sunday morning, Dec. 25, elected officers for the ensuing year at their regular class session.

The new officers are a follows: Prof. W. S. Smith, teacher; R. H. Kilgore, assistant teacher; John Snapp, president; G. Frank Wolford, first vice-president; R. A. Furr, second vice president; Van Wood, third vice president; Tom Paysinger, secretary; Otis E. Nelson, assistant secretary; Clyde Cunningham, treasurer; W. L. Watkins, song leader, and J. S. Griffis, assistant song leader.

Prof. Smith, reelected as teacher, has served the class in this capacity ever since the class was organized with the exception of one year, when Dr. G. L. Yates, who was pastor at the time taught the class. Prof. Smith is proclaimed one of the most able scholars and teachers of the Bible in the city, this being one of the most active men's Sunday school classes in the city or county.

Mr. Snapp succeeds Gabe Kerby as president, Mr. Kerby having served for the past three years. He has ably and conscientiously led the men in their activities and is held in the highest esteem and regard by all members as well as the citizenship of the town and county generally. The class has done some splendid work under his administration, and has continued to grow from year to year. He has received the heartiest support from all the members during the past three years and expects to give his cooperation to the new officers who will guide the class the ensuing year. His successor, John Snapp, is ably fitted for the position of president, and is promised the same cooperation and fellowship under his administration that was tendered Mr. Kerby.

This big group of men was organized about fourteen years ago, the first president being J. Perry Burrus, now a prominent business man of Dallas. Presidents succeeding Mr. Burrus are W. S. Smith; A. G. (Pat) Mayse, now of Paris; H. J. Harris, now of Dallas; Lee R. Hoover and Gabe Kerby.

The men are continuously working toward building up a stronger men's Bible organization, and invite all men in the city, who are not affiliated with other churches, to visit their class and hear the fine messages brought each Sunday morning by Prof. Smith.

PRISONERS DINED SUMPTUOUSLY ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Never before has the Texas prison system been run with the efficiency and capable business ability that it is now being conducted with Lee Simmons of Sherman as manager.

A copy of the Christmas dinner menu served at the Huntsville prison Dec. 25, has fallen into our hands. It is a neatly printed folder, the product of the prison printing department. Horace Coon is steward and Ira McDaniel, assistant steward.

One of Mr. Simmon's strong points as manager is the human way in which he treats the prisoners. He uses every known art to his genius to make the prisoners better men and women. He is firm in discipline, but very kind and considerate of their welfare, trying to give them well cooked, wholesome food, warm clothing, and comfortable quarters to live in.

The Christmas dinner of course, was a special meal, such as the prisoners might expect if they were at home or visiting relatives [illegible]nds on Christmas day. Here it is:

Dinner—Celery hearts, roast turkey, giblet dressing, mashed potatoes, Parker House rolls, sauce supreme, cranberry sauce, jello fruit salad, scalloped corn, mince pie, and hot coffee.

FRISCO YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED IN OCTOBER

Along with the Christmas bells the wedding bells too have been ringing in Frisco. And what season is more fitting for this than the one which is celebrated because of love? For God so loved the world that he gave his son whose birth is celebrated during these days, as a pattern for all.

Announcement has just been made of the [illegible] of Miss Opal Nixon to [illegible] Blacketer, which took place last October in Oklahoma. Mrs. Blacketer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W Nixon. Mr. Blacketer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood Blacketer, both of this community, where they will reside after a visit with relatives at Maybank.

CARD OF THANKS.

The wife, sister, and brothers of the late James K. Moore of Kansas City, who was recently buried in the Pecan Grove cemetery at McKinney, request this paper to extend their sincerest thanks to each and every friend of their old home city and county, who so kindly assisted in his funeral arrangements and in laying him away. Also, for every floral offering, sympathetic word and thoughtful consideration shown them in their great sorrow. It endears them more than ever to the friends of the Moore family in their old home city. They shall ever treasure the memory of your friendship and kindnesses that did so much to assuage their sorrow.

JOSEPHINE MERCHANT VISITS HERE TUESDAY

John W. Broxson, prominent Josephine dry goods merchant, and public spirited citizen, transacted business in McKinney Tuesday. Mr. Broxson is very active in church and civic lines in his little town, which is the trading center for one of the choicest agricultural sections that we have ever seen. In our opinion, the best cotton grown in the entire county was produced in Southwest Collin in the Josephine and North Royse sections. Mr. Broxson reports lots of rain in December in his section of the county and an unusually heavy snow for this part of the South. While farmers made good crops as a rule down there, prices were so low that they have very little money, although they have plenty of feed and food to run them. Josephine has more or less people, however, who are out of employment and some families are in real need and must be helped get through the winter. We are always happy to meet up with our good friend, Mr. Broxson, and shake his friendly hand. He is a prince among good fellows, socially as well as in his business dealings.

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED DEC. 26 AT FRISCO

The marriage of Miss Faye Cook to James Berry Haggard was solemnized Monday, Dec. 26, at the Methodist parsonage at Celina, Rev. C. W. Clement officiating.

Miss Cook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cook and a granddaughter of the late T. J. Cook, pioneer of the Frisco community.

Mr. Haggard, who for the past year has made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Wallace Smith, west of Frisco, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Norvel Granberry Haggard of Lenorah, Martin county. Mr. Haggard is also the grandson of pioneers of this community, being the grandson of Berry Kelsay and the late James Haggard, who died recently at Denton. They will make their home at Lenorah.

CHANGES TAKE PLACE WITH NEW YEAR'S ARRIVAL

With the coming of the new year, a number of changes have been made by local business houses.

Miss Bertha Goostree has moved her bookstore from North Kentucky street on to the square jointly occupying one of the Ritz theater buildings with Mrs. R. H. Kilgore of the Rose Marie shop. She is advertising in the Daily Courier-Gazette, and is inviting her many friends and patrons to come by and see her. She has a complete line of school books and all kinds of writing material and novelties.

Hamilton-Patterson Motor company have completed their change across the street and now have their entire business on the east side of North Tennessee street, next door to this office. Extensive improvements have been made during the past month or two on their new location. They have made a new drive-in filling station in the old office space, providing four big pumps out in front where they will be handy. They have also built a new workshop at the back of the building and have built a driveway upstairs. Aubrey Hamilton, W. C. atterson and Grover Furr are the proprietors.

Bill Furr, proprietor of Furr's grocery on East Greenville street, announces in Saturday's Daily Courier-Gazette the change from a credit to a cash grocery, promising his patrons new bargains and opportunities at his place of business.

Quite a few changes have been made in other lines, also. P. R. Westmoreland has consolidated his two grocery stores on East Louisiana street and beginning Saturday, is open to business at the newly-remodeled Buy-Lo location with both Buy-Lo and Save-U housed there. Mr. Westmoreland himself is acting as manager of the new store.

The Leader, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Townley, formerly located on the southeast corner of the public square, has moved into the building on North Kentucky street, formerly occupied by Miss Bertha Goostree's bookstore.

Recently, the Texas Curio Den was opened on North Kentucky street in the downstairs Masonic building with Col. G. J. S. Walker, sheriff-elect, in charge, where he has a wonderful collection of curios and antiques, horns and other valuable relics, said to be among the best in the Southwest.

The building opposite this office on North Tennessee street, formerly occupied by Hamilton-Patterson Motor company, has been leased by the Gulf company, according to Rasco Reed, and they will open up a new Gulf station soon after the beginning of the new year.

Mrs. M. T. Jones, wife of former Mayor Jones, who has been ill at their home on North Church street, was taken to the city hospital Tuesday evening, continuing quite ill.

Ula Saunders is able to be out after a few days' illness with the flu. His wife and his mother-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Bass, are both confined with the malady. However, they were some better Tuesday.

MRS. C. SAIGLING PLANO LADY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Sarah Howell of this city received a message Saturday afternoon, announcing the death at 12:17 that afternoon of Mrs. C. Saigling at her home in Plano.

The deceased is the widow of the late C. Saigling, an early day miller and prominent business man of Plano, who died many years ago.

She was the mother of three sons and four daughters. Her sons, Charlie and George Saigling, both lived at Plainview, while the other son, Walter Saigling, is a farmer out from Plano a short distance.

The deceased's husband and son, Charlie, at one time were part owners of the big Crouch-Saigling hardware and furniture store and undertaking establishmen of McKinney.

The deceased was quite well known in McKinney.

MOTHER OF MRS. GEO. W. SMITH PASSES AWAY

Mrs. George W. Smith left Saturday morning for Tishomingo, Okla., where she was called by the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Thomas, who died at the home of her son, F. M. Thomas, in that city. She had been in ill health for the past six weeks. She was 79 years, 3 months, and 10 days old at the time of her passing.

The deceased had resided in Anna, in this county, up until about six years ago when she went to Tishomingo to reside with her son. Her late husband died at Anna in 1905, being buried at Altoga.

Mrs. M. H. Garnett has returned from spending the holidays in Waco, where she went to attend the wedding of her nephew, Ensign J. E. Dodson, U. S. N., to Miss Mary Manton; also to meet another nephew, Lieut. O. H. Dodson, U. S. N., and wife, who had just married in San Diego, Cal., and left at once for a wedding tour to his old home that he might serve as best man at his brother's marriage. It was the first reunion of the Dodson family in eight years and a very joyful one, says Mrs. Garnett.

THE PEOPLES' CLEARING HOUSE

The Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette will print short timely communications that are acceptable. They must be free from personal abuse and libel. Authors' must sign their names. The views expressed here in are the writer's—not these editors. Space is limited. This column will be called: "The Peoples' Clearing House."

FROM PIONEER SUBSCRIBER.

The writer, who is a pioneer subscriber and reader of the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette, as well as the Examiner, wishes to be registered as a true friend of these papers because we know of their value to our splendid little city and county.

Collin county's first newspaper was the McKinney Messenger, J. W. Thomas, editor, which began its career in 1859 and ceased publication in 1876. The next journalistic attempt in the county was the McKinney Enquirer, launched in 1867 and which was soon taken over by the late Capt. John H. Bingham, who continued its publication for thirty years lacking only three or four weeks. Then in 1884 the Weekly Democrat came on the scene and for nearly forty-nine years has been regularly issued. The daily field was first occupied in 1897 by the Courier. These papers were consolidated by Walter B. Wilson with the weekly and Daily Gazette, owned by Tom W. Perkins on July 15, 1906, with the firm Perkins & Wilson, publishers. The papers ever since have been known as the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette. The purpose of this letter is to commend this firm and its papers for its untiring zeal and continuous good work for our splendid little city and great county. The value of a public-spirited editor and a live, wide-awake newspaper to a community can hardly be overestimated. The writer wishes these publishers every good thing that can come their way during the ensuing year—including lots of ads, good will, good health for themselves and families and all happiness to attend their journalistic careers as they lengthen into many more years.

Sincerely your friend,
A PIONEER SUBSCRIBER.

Sam Welch has moved back to McKinney after a fifteen-year absence, living practically all of the time at Portales, N. M. He is a native of this county and has resided here all of his life until some fifteen years ago. He likes the West fine, but says old Collin county is good enough for him. We welcome this good man and his family back to our city and county.

Mrs. T. G. McBee and little son Jimmy, have returned from Denison where they visited relatives.

High hopes for a successful 1933 crystallized into action in McKinney Monday as local citizens started on another twelve months with a vigor and bustle.

Since Jan. 1 fell on Sunday this year, today (Monday), Jan. 2, was recognized as the official holiday although very few local people regarded it as such. In fact, it was one of the busiest days of the season, pepped up considerably by cool, delightful weather and another cloudless sky.

MERCURY FALLS TO 30 DEGREES EARLY SATURDAY

Fair and colder weather greeted McKinney and Collin county folks the past week end as the result of a 15- degree dropin temperature between Friday and Saturday mornings, that plunged the termometer to below freezing Friday night, and made the wet ground a coating of ice Saturday morning.

The thermometer, which registered 45 degrees at 7 a. m. Friday, dropped to 40 at 6:30 p. m. that afternoon and dropped still further to 30, two degrees below freezing early Saturday morning.

Clearing skies Friday night and Saturday morning were hailed with delight by local citizens, who were hoping against a return of the cold, wet weather that had ruled here during the last few days. The total precipitation was .95 of an inch according to the rain gauge of E. Pearl Skelton, local government weather observer.

The cold weather, which was considered ideal for issuing in the New Year here, was already stealing on West Texas Friday with 24 degrees at Amarillo and 38 degrees at El Paso.

REV. T. H. MORRIS PASSES AWAY IN DALLAS

Rev. T. H. Morris, of 3532 McFarlin boulevard, Dallas, superannuated Methodist minister, died at the Methodist hospital in Dallas Tuesday morning, Dec. 27, at the age of 72 years.

The Rev. Mr. Morris had been a member of the North Texas conference of the Methodist Church, South, since 1890, and had held a number of important pastorates.

Rev. Mr. Morris and family lived in Plano, this county, for four years—from the fall of 1923 to the fall of 1927. During his residence there he was pastor of the Plano Methodist church.

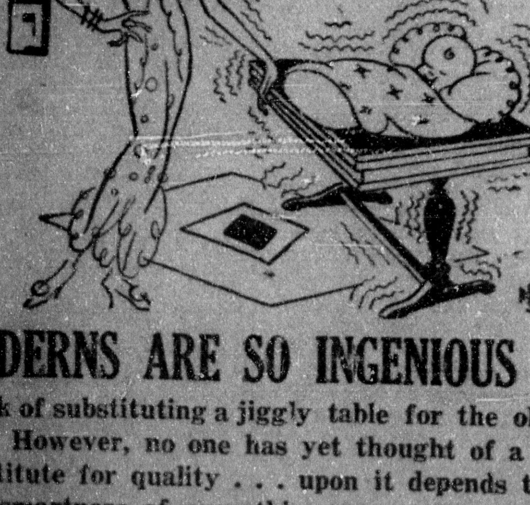
He was a native of Georgia and was a printer on the Atlanta Constitution and a reporter on the Galveston News prior to entering the ministry.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Foley-Frazier funeral home, Dallas, conducted by Rev. C. S. Riddle. Burial followed in Forest Lawn burial park, Dallas.

Survivors are his wife, three sons, Tom Morris and Singleton Morris of Dallas, and Dr. W. E. Morris of Valhalla, N. Y.; a brother, Gus Morris, and a sister, Mrs. E. S. Vinson of Milledgeville, Ga.

Pallbearers were Sam Householder, Byers; Dr. J. M. Fleming, Mount Vernon; Dr. Harrington and R. C. Hays, of Plano, and R. C. T. Jacobs of Dallas. Ministers of the North Texas annual conference were honorary pallbearers.

Everyone says we do nice job printing. We really do. Your next order will be appreciated.



MODERNS ARE SO INGENIOUS

Think of substituting a jiggly table for the old time crib! However, no one has yet thought of a suitable substitute for quality . . . upon it depends the style and smartness of everything you wear; for regardless of the apparent style, it will not make you look or feel right unless the quality is there. Many women have learned that at Leonard's they are always assured of this inherent quality, and that the prices are most reasonable, too.

LEONARD'S DEPARTMENT STORE McKINNEY

COUNTY-WIDE PROHIBITION MEET SUNDAY

A county-wide meeting of the United Prohibition Forces of Texas will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Jan. 8, at the First Christian church in McKinney at which the speakers will be Dr. George W. Truett and Dr. Wallace Bassett, both eminent Texas Baptist pastors and conceded to be among the ablest speakers of the state or South.

Dr. Truett's name is a household word almost throughout the nation. He has been pastor of the First Baptist church at Dallas for over thirty years. His popularity as a pastor, preacher and orator is such that his regular church services are often attended by overflowing crowds.

Dr. Wallace Bassett has for many years been pastor of the Temple Baptist church of Oak Cliff. He, too, is reckoned among the ablest speakers and popular and influential Baptist ministers of the state.

Every friend of the cause of prohibition, regardless of creed or political persuasion, is invited to be present at the appointment of these two eminent men for McKinney at that date—2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Jan. 8, at the First Christian church. Arrangements will be made to provide extra seating facilities in the way of chairs to occupy all available space of this big McKinney church auditorium and adjacent Sunday school rooms.

It is hoped that every nook and corner of Collin county will be represented by delegations at this meeting at which a county organization will be set up to work with the statewide organization in combating the efforts of the wet forces and liquor advocates to repeal the eighteenth amendment or to repeal or emasculate our state liquor enforcement laws and to bring about a more wholesome respect for and a more thorough enforcement of those laws.

The tocsin of war has been declared on continuance of prohibition in the nation and state by the wets who are unusually aggressive and vigorous at, what they consider is their opportune time during the depression, to abrogate prohibition when the people are "up in the air" economically speaking, and bring back a return of the licensed liquor traffic with all of its retinue of attendant evils—debauchery, gambling, red lights, and every form of vice that intemperance breeds and fosters.

Collin county prohibitionists are going to accept this gauge of battle thrown down by the liquor forces and oppose them to the bitter end in their efforts in these abnormal times to undo all that prohibition and temperance forces have accomplished in the last twelve or fifteen years and return again to conditions prevailing during the saloon days. People have not forgotten that the breweries and the liquor forces not only corrupted the morals of our state among the people, but, wherever possible, debauched and corrupted the administration of the government in the interest of their own nefarious traffic solely for the money gain to be derived and insensible to the human suffering and woe that follows in their trail of debauchery, poverty, sorrow, and death.

FORMER COLLIN MAN DIED IN ACCIDENT

Vernie Kissinger, aged 39, well-known resident of Aubrey, Denton county, but formerly of the Walnut Grove community in this county, died Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock in the Denton hospital, a few minutes after a fatal accident on the Aubrey-Denton highway, when the truck he was driving ran into a ditch. The radius rod on the truck came loose, and as he started to round a corner on the highway, the truck struck a bridge, crashing on through to the ditch. Mr. Kissinger was picked up by neighbors who were close behind, bringing him to Denton where he died fifteen minutes later.

Funeral services were held at Aubrey Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The deceased is survived by his wife and three children. Three brothers also survive as follows: Willie Kissinger of Sherman; J. L. Kissinger of Bloomdale, and L. A. Kissinger of the Walnut Grove community.

The deceased was a son of the late J. G. Kissinger and wife, who resided in the Walnut Grove community. Three brothers and one sister receded him in death. One of his brothers, Claud Kissinger, met his death three months and ten days before Vernie's death in much the same manner. He was driving a truck on the same highway when he met his tragic death.

I. M. Counts, who for the past four years, has conducted a barber shop on South Tennessee street, has moved his shop to the Giles McKinney building, East Louisiana street, which was formerly occupied by the K. T. barber shop. Mr. Counts has seven chairs, all first-class barbers, and he is using our advertising columns, soliciting the patronage of the readers of the Daily Courier-Gazette and the Weekly Democrat-Gazette. Drop in and see them in their new place of business.

Young Couple Wed In Oklahoma

Estelle Faye, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Fay Galberth, was united in marriage to Fred Walter Lane of Dallas Christmas eve at 3:30 p. m. at Marietta, Okla.

The young couple were entertained with a wedding dinner at the home of Mr. Lane's parents at Prosper, Texas, Christmas day. Miss Faye has made her home in Dallas since March, where she has made many friends. The wedding came as a surprise to her many friends here.

Mr. Lane is a prominent young business man of Dallas, having been connected with the Burrus Elevators there for the past four years. The young couple were entertained again Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Marcum in this city, the occasion being a dinner party.

After a wedding trip to Galveston they will be at home at Dallas at 911 Church street.

JAS. T. MORRIS WAS 81 YEARS OLD CHRISTMAS EVE

James T. Morris, owner of Morris' cafe on South Tennessee street, was 81 years young on Christmas eve. It is really a treat to talk with Mr. Morris. He is a native of Pennsylvania and came to Texas fifty-eight years ago, locating in Galveston residing there twenty-eight years, being engaged in the cafe business in that city. The Galveston flood destroyed his property, drowning his brother and four of his brother's children. Mr. Morris owned and operated one of the largest cafes in Galveston.

Losing everything he had financially, he located in Wolfe City, remaining there for some ten years, where he was in the cafe business. About twenty years ago—only three or four days after the big Odd Fellows hall fell down on the northeast corner of the square, where the Central State bank is now located—he came to McKinney and has resided here ever since, again engaging in the cafe business.

While a young man residing in Indianapolis, Ind., on Nov. 17, 1874, Dr. F. J. Van Vorhes told him that if he wanted to live he would have to go south, so Mr. Morris came to Texas and has been here ever since.

In September, 1914, he opened his present cafe and has owned and operated it ever since. He is gifted in the art of cooking, having had fifty years' experience. He still bakes his own pastry, pies and cakes.

Mrs. Morris, with whom he had lived for forty-six years, died in McKinney April 13, 1929, at their home on South Parker street. He owns the home and still resides there.

For forty-four years this cafe owner has been a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge, and is a staunch believer in the principles of this fraternal organization. He is a man of most pleasing address, always attending to his own affairs and ever letting other people's alone. He owns his own business house, where he has been doing business for nearly twenty years on South Tennessee street, and tells us that he does not owe a dollar on any of his property or to a human being. He reads without the aid of glasses and you would easily take him for a man of not more than 50 or 55 years of age.

It is a pleasure to talk with this fine man, because he has seen lots of life and his eighty-one years has given him much information.

AGED MOTHER BURIED AT OLD HIGHLAND

Mrs. Margaret Shaw, 83 years old, died at 11 a. m. Wednesday, Dec. 28, at the home of her son, F. C. Shaw, about 10 miles southwest of Sherman.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Highland cemetery, three miles south of Anna, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Sanders, Sherman.

Surviving are four sons, Tom and J. M. Shaw of Dallas, A. R. Shaw of Ropesville, and F. C. Shaw; two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Goldston of Ropesville, and Mrs. N. W. Daugherty of near Dorchester; 18 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Shaw came to Texas from Kentucky 42 years ago, locating at Anna, where she lived until her husband died five years ago. Since his death, Mrs. Shaw has made her home with her children. She was born June 1, 1849, in Kentucky. She had been a member of the Christian church since childhood.

Phl West, former county jailer, continues to be confined to his home with the flu.

We heard a party "bewailing the old town" the other day, stating that they owned property here and could not rent it. We also noted that the party had just returned home from Dallas, having a number of bundles bought from stores down there. If people, who own property in McKinney, won't trade at home, how can you expect "just any folk" to trade here. Trade away from home and your property will remain vacant. No fooling about it. It will. Blame yourself. No one but yourself.

CITY VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ENJOY ANNUAL FEAST

McKinney volunteer firemen, and their wives and sweethearts, together with a number of invited guests, enjoyed their annual banquet at the First Methodist church Thursday night. Although the weather outside was anything but pleasant—a heavily clouded sky sending down frequent showers—yet the warmth and geniality prevailing inside the banquet hall more than offset the bleakness of the weather outdoors.

It was just like one big family as the firemen, active and exempt, and their wives, members of the city commission, press, and ministers enjoyed a delicious banquet, so graciously served by the ladies of McKinney churches.

Chief McKinney Presides.

Chief J. S. McKinney acted as toastmaster. He voiced the appreciation of the firemen to the ladies for this and other banquets they have been serving. "It repays us for the hardships which firemen must undergo," he said.

Music was furnished throughout the feast by a stringed band, composed of Claude Neely and son, C. D., Otho Combest, Noah Majors, and Lynn Boorman. Every number of theirs was greatly appreciated and they were loudly applauded by the appreciative audience.

The stringed orchestra was minus the services of R. E. (Bob) Dunlap, who is confined to his home with illness. He had hoped to be able play for firemen's banquet, but illness kept him at home. He was greatly missed not only by members of the orchestra but by the volunteer firemen and their guests of the evening.

In addition to the active firemen there was a large number of inactive and exempt members present to enjoy the feast.

Invocation was said by Commissioner C. M. Bryan.

Chief McKinney voiced the regrets of the firemen at the inability of several members and friends to attend the meeting including Mayor Tom W. Perkins, Dr. Robert L. Cowan, Bob Ware, Gibson Caldwell and many others.

Commissioner Bryan.

In the absence of Mayor Perkins, Commissioner C. M. Bryan was called upon and, referring to the past and present record of McKinney's volunteer fire department, said: "Your work will stand through eternity. Your names may be forgotten, but your work will stand." By way of comparison he told of the great pyramids which still stand and which are admired every day, although the workmen's names have been forgotten for centuries.

Commissioner Brockman.

Commissioner Roy L. Brockman was next called upon. He told the firemen that it was a great delight for him to attend such an enjoyable event and that they could always count on his presence every time he was invited. He was elected as honorary member of the volunteer fire department two years ago.

Dr. Weaver Speaks.

In the absence of Dr. Robert L. Cowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church and president of the McKinney Pastors' association, Dr. C. S. Weaver, pastor of the First Christian church, was called upon to represent the association. This was his thirteenth time to attend such an occasion. His talk, which was enjoyable, was along the lines of friendship, in which he asserted that if occasion demanded, he knew that men coming into his home to protect life and property, would be his friends; if he had to go to the hospital he would still be among friends; when he comes downtown every morning, those he passes on the streets, are friends. He commented on this fact and said that it was one of the joys of life to know that you are living among real friends.

A Genuine Treat.

A treat of the evening came when Chief McKinney called upon Mrs. John Moore to talk on the subject, "Life of An Active Fireman's Wife." Mrs. Moore proved her standing as a humorist. Her address proved to be highly humorous and kept the audience in a jovial mood throughout her talk as she brought anecdote after anecdote on the trials and tribulations of an active fireman's wife. She declared that she had been the wife of an active fireman for thirty-two years, hence should know whereof she spoke.

Editor F. C. Thompson.

Editor F. C. (Carlie) Thompson was called upon as a representative of the press and among other things commended the firemen for their quick responses whenever the alarm is sounded. In fact, they seem to "sense" fire and it seemed to him that they were up and on their way even before the alarm sounds." He always enjoys the fellowship of such a fine group of citizens as the firemen, Mr. Thompson said. He concluded by declaring that in this day of doubt, fear, and confusion, it behooves us to be thoughtful of one another. "We will come out of it," he confided, for he believed the Lord to be guiding us into a better day and world.

H. A. Kistler and Giles McKinney, former active members of the fire department, were called upon for talks.

Concluding the series of brief talks, Chief McKinney next called upon a woman whom he said had made it possible for the firemen to enjoy these banquets for the past twenty-five years. Up until twenty-five years ago, the firemen had been assessing each member for the banquet. But in that year, Mrs. F. M. Warden and the late Dr. E. E. King, pastor of the First Baptist church, declared that the firemen should never pay for their own banquet again.

Since that time the ladies of the various McKinney churches have been serving this annual feast. He then called upon Mrs. Warden for a few words.

Mrs. Warden declared that she always enjoyed these annual feasts and looked forward to them from year to year. She promised the firemen that they could look forward to another banquet next year at the First Christian church.

Those Present.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Belden, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cockrell, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Runnion, Miss Lucy Joplin, Morey Neely, Miss Anna Belle Neely, E. C. Reed, C. J. Nelson, Dr. Clifford S. Weaver, Giles McKinney, Commissioner Roy L. Brockman, J. M. McNeil, Editor F. C. Thompson, Don W. Bagwill, O. A. Brannon, Walter B. Wilson, Mrs. Edgar McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sparlin, Mr. and Mrs. Orla J. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Adams, Commissioner and Mrs. C. M. Bryan, Chief J. S. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kistler, Willie Ware, Mrs. Joe Ware, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Oates, W. A. Taylor, Miss Ella Gene Akers of Plano, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Belden, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Padgitt, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Wilson, all of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Lucas of Ennis.

Ladies Serve Banquet.

The following ladies served the dinner: Mrs. F. M. Warden, Mrs. Ben Oates, Mrs. Cliff Emerson, Mrs. Roscoe Burk, Mrs. Ruth Flemister, Mrs. W. I. Bryan, Miss Bonnye Lou Hackney, Miss Mary Nell Bryan, Miss Beatrice Jackson, Miss Eula Abernathy, Mrs. Walter B. Wilson, Mrs. Florence Warden.

The ladies who helped arrange the dining hall Thursday afternoon were Mesdames Walter Davis, Stone, Frank Emerson, and others.

Members of Orchestra.

Members of the orchestra furnishing music for the occasion were Oather Combest, N. E. Majors, Lynn Boorman, T. D. Neely and C. D. Neely.

Mrs. Jess Jordan of Abilene, formerly one of the efficient nurses in the McKinney city hospital, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas, at their home, 203 North Bradley street, in this city. Mr. Douglas is office deputy for Sheriff G. J. S. Walker.

MONEY BEING EXPENDED FOR HIGHWAY WORK

In conversation with County Judge E. W. Merritt, this editor learned that the state highway department has appropriated $19,448 for widening and putting down a rock base on State Highway 24 (Frisco-McKinney highway) from State Highway 6 (McKinney-Dallas highway) west 5.48 miles to the southeast corner of Mrs. M. A. Turner's farm.

This appropriation is made on the condition that Collin county furnish an eightyfoot right-of-way. The commissioners' court of the county, composed of Judge E. W. Merritt and Commissioners Don O. Davis, J. Wilson Spain, C. C. Whitt and Lee Cook, have been endeavoring to secure the necessary additional right-of-way and have recently completed this work, with the exception of one small tract.

According to Judge Merritt a large portion of the right-of-way was donated by property owners to secure this improvement and it is stated by representatives of the state highway department that they will start this work as soon as the weather permits.

The state highway department has also recently appropriated $15,266 for improvement of State Highway 116 (Celina-Dallas highway) from near Panther creek, south of Rock Hill, to Celina by use of a rock base. This is a distance of 10.62 miles and highway department officials expect to also start this work soon.

The state highway department has also appropriated $7,292 for the construction of about one mile of road, connecting State Highway 78 with hard surface highway on the west line of Fannin county, about two miles north of Blue Ridge, provided Collin county furnishes the right-of-way.

The county commissioners' court with the assistance of Joe E. Largent, Add G. Wilson and Henry C. Miller, are endeavoring at present to secure this additional right-of-way.

The court also recently let contracts for construction of one and one-half miles of rock road from the Foncine store south to the Frisco pike and one and one-half miles from Baccus cemetery to Highway 116.

It is hoped that the improvements mentioned may be started by the highway department at an early date, in order to furnish work for labor of our county who need employment, in addition to securing these needed highway improvements by the state.

Van Mount Wood has returned to school at Stephenville, where he is attending the John Tarleton Agricultural college after spending the holidays here. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Wood.

SUCCESSFUL BIG SOUTHEAST COLLIN FARMER

Ed Spells, a prominent Southeast Collin farmer of near Josephine, transacted business in McKinney Tuesday. He has lived down there for twenty-three years during which time he has abundantly demonstrated his success as a farmer. He owns 400 acres of choicely improved land, one and one-half miles north of Josephine. In 1931 he raised 180 bales of cotton, but this year he raised only about 80 bales on about the same acreage. He held 75 bales of his last year's crop over until this fall, selling it several weeks ago around 6.50 cents per pound. This editor had the pleasure of a friendly visit from Mr. Spells and renewing acquaintances with him. Mr. Spells has two children, a son and daughter—both married. Mr. Spells operates his own land by the aid of hired labor.

Family Reunion At Home Rev and Mrs. M. F. Wheeler

Rev. M. F. Wheeler and wife had the pleasure of another annual reunion of their children during Christmas and the past week-end. Those here were: Amber P. Wheeler and wife of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickinson and son, Paul, of Ardmore, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Hulin of Longview; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler and daughter, Roberta, of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler of Hillsboro.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler has been a resident of McKinney for more than thirty-one years and it is an annual custom of his children, who were principally reared and educated in McKinney, to gather at the parental home to celebrate Christmas and to add to the happiness of their parents.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Byrd Coleman of Wylie was destroyed by fire, undetermined origin, Christmas eve at about seven o'clock. The family was in town attending Christmas eve services at the time.

Mayor M. L. Vermillion of Westminster was a business visitor in McKinney Monday. He is one of our county's most solid and influential citizens. One of his several brothers, Rev. Henry F. Vermillion, is now pastor of the Baptist church at Nevada, Texas. The county has no better citizens in it than the Vermillions.

ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY 7, 1884. McKINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JAN. 5, 1933.——SECOND SECTION. FORTY-NINTH YEAR

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS LAUNCHED MON. NIGHT BY LOCAL LEGION POST

Nearly 100 Legionnaires Present from All Sections of County; N. T. Lee, Executive Committeeman, Speaks.

Approximately eighty ex-service men were present at the first meeting of the year held by the Jimmie Geigas American Legion post, No. 96, of this city Monday night, Jan. 2, at their headquarters in the city hall.

It was a special meeting of legionnaires of the county called by Bartow Chapman commander of the local post, and his assistants. Other legion posts of the county were represented as well as non-legion veterans from various other points over the county.

Post Commander Bartow Chapman presided.

N. T. (North Texas) Lee of Sherman, executive committeeman of this, the Fifth congressional district, was present and made a splendid talk on the beginning of a membership campaign of this and other local posts. He told why he believed in the legion and stressed its comradeship, declaring it is the only way to combat the forces working against the organization.

Gabe Allen of Dallas was originally scheduled to address the gathering, but, of course, could not come due to the death of his brother, Judge Arch Allen, who died Monday morning from an automobile accident the day before.

Legionnaires were here from Frisco, Princeton, Culleoka, Clearlake, Plano, Allen, Anna, Melissa, Prosper, Altoga, Blue Ridge, and other points in the county.

A new committee was announced at the Monday night membership meeting, to be known as the legion military funeral escort, of which Morris Gay will be chairman. This committee has charge of providing a military escort for the funerals of all deceased legionnaires, as well as providing flowers for the sick and the diseased and other humanitarian work.

The local post sent a beautiful wreath of flowers to members of the family of the late Judge Arch Allen.

GID H. DOWLEN LIVED IN M'KINNEY FOR 61 YEARS

One of the older McKinney residents in point of time lived in our city, is Gid H. Dowlen, retired contractor and builder, but who for several years has been grand jury door bailiff during the sitting of that inquisitorial body when they are in session. Mr. Dowlen was born and reared near Nashville, Tenn., and landed in McKinney in 1872, just a few weeks after the hanging of Ballew, the first white man to ever be legally executed in Collin county.

During his long years of activity, Mr Dowlen has built numerous business houses and residences in McKinney. He enjoys fairly good health but for several years has been badly crippled in his feet, making it quite difficult for him to get about.

Uncle Gid is known and appreciated by a host of friends living in every part of the county. He is a man of strong convictions and absolutely fearless and frank in their expression.

During the old aldermanic form of city government, Mr. Dowlen served several years as an alderman from his ward on the board of aldermen here.

FIVE BURN TO DEATH IN WEST TEXAS

BARSTOW, Texas, Jan. 3.—Five persons were burned to death in a fire late yesterday which destroyed the home of Walter Hood, tennant farmer, three miles north of here.

Three others are believed dying as a result of burns received in the fire.

The fire was caused by gasoline thrown into a heated stove.

Mr and Mrs. R. A. Grundy of Memphis, Texas, have returned to their home after spending the holidays with Mrs. Jim Kimbriel and family of this city. Mrs. W. C. Smith, who has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. Grundy, in Memphis, also returned to her home in McKinney where she makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Kimbriel.

EMPLOYES OF CITY HONORED WITH DINING

Following their annual custom, J. T. Couch and Mr. Johnson, proprietor of the People's cafe, jointly entertained the city employes of McKinney with dinner Tuesday noon at that cafe on West Louisiana street. The following employes of the city enjoyed this treat and are grateful to Messrs. Couch and Johnson: W. C. Mills, W. D. Shain, E. L. Taylor, H. Bandy, V. Dennis, Sam Majors, W. R. Leach, R. P. White, C. H. Barnes, Bill Keyes, W. P. Griffith, Tom Chambliss, Frank Mills, John Klepper, D. W. Bagwill, Frank Decker, and Ed Beard.

Mr. Couch made a nice talk which was greatly appreciated and all employes of the city take this opportunity of thanking their donors for the treat.

BLUE SWEATERS AWARDED 1932 LION LETTERMEN

Football sweaters were awarded to fifteen lettermen of the McKinney High Lions' 1932 squad, their sponsor, and manager, at impressive chapel exercises at the Boyd high school here Monday morning.

Prof. J. T Rollins, coach for the boys, presented the sweaters to the following lettermen: Capt. Jack Donihoo, Speed Kimbriel, Jesse Richardson, Robert Forte, Leslie Walden, Billy Bass, George Hooker, Tom McBee, Leo Crockett, Doyle Harris, Carroll Adair, J. B. Strickling, Jack Dowell, Cloyd Giles, and James E. Wilson; and to Miss Sara Abernathy, sponsor, and Buddy Dowell, popular manager. The sweaters are deep navy blue with navy blue letters trimmed in gold. Miss Abernathy received a very beautiful white sweater with a blue and gold "M."

Other speakers on the program included Prof. Jack R. Ryan, city superintendent of schools; Prof. Lyman D. Robinson, principal of Boyd high school; Prof. W. R Hollis, assistant coach, and Prof. A. A. Alexander, who materially assisted with the business end of the team during the 1932 season. Mr. Alexander explained that much of the money with which the sweaters were purchased was taken in at the concession counter under the stadium during the games. He also thanked L. Vernie Graves, close follower of the Lions and retired McKinney business man, who presented them with a handsome check toward purchasing these sweaters.

B. F. HORNER FATALLY HURT PLANO THURSDAY

Buford M. Horner, 25 years old, was injured by a hit and run automobile driver at Plano Thursday, December 29, and died in St. Paul's sanitarium at Dallas early Saturday morning from the results of injuries sustained.

The young man had spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Horner, at Denison, and was en route back to Dallas when he was fatally injured at Plano where he was picked up on the highway at a Plano street intersection and rushed in an unconscious condition to the Dallas hospital.

He had been employed in a tailor shop in Dallas where he was returning to resume work after the Christmas holidays.

He was born in Denison, December 10, 1907, where he received his high school education and was employed in a pressing and cleaning establishment before going to Dallas. The body was buried in Denison. Sunday afternoon, January 1.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Horner, brothers, Bert Horner of Desert, Texas and Walter, Cecil, George and Rayburn Horner of Denison; sisters Bessie and Susan Horner, and Mrs. Julia Brouer of Denison and Mrs. O. R. Thurston, of Waco.

Elmer Bomar, who resides east of town, was a McKinney business visitor Monday.

VIC FRASIER, SOX HURLER, HERE TUESDAY

Vic Frasier of Mount Enterprise, Texas, came to McKinney last Tuesday to sign his contract for the coming season with the Chicago White Sox of the American League, via their scout, Roy Largent, of this city. The deal was completed here Tuesday. Frasier is the young pitcher who hurled the Dallas Steers to the Texas League pennant three years ago. He has been with the White Sox since that time and is one of the stars of the major leagues at the present time.

Our readers will remember that Scout Largent signed Vic for the Sox when he first went up three years ago. The play of this young star is a tribute to Mr. Largent and his ability to pick players. Quite a few of his friends enjoyed meeting Fraiser during his brief visit in McKinney.

WEST COLLIN FARM BOYS ATTEND COLLEGE

A. B. Rogers, widely acquainted farmer of near Frisco, and two sons, A. B. and Curtis Rogers, two young college students, were in McKinney Tuesday. The son, A. B., finished a two-year course at Wesley college, Greenville, and is now a junior at the North Texas State Teachers' college at Denton. His younger brother, Curtis, has had only one year at Wesley college and is a sophomore at the North Texas State Teachers' college this year. These two young men are splendid specimens physically and seem to be meeting the requirements mighty well in their mental studies.

On account of the depression and low prices of farm products, their father is unable to furnish them ready cash this year needed on their college education, but he and their mother are providing most of their eats, while the boys are paying their room rent and some other expenses from their Jerseys, doing their own milking, room work and such laundry work that their mother and sister at home can not conveniently do for them. These young college students are grandsons of the late Beverly L. Rogers, a West Collin pioneer farmer and citizen of revered memory. Both of them are determined to secure a college education, know how to work and are not afraid of any kind of honest labor. It is difficult to prophesy a future success too great for robust, ambitious, intellectually bright young American farm youths of such caliber and sturdy, determined character behind them.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. (Nelson) Strode were their son, Joe W. Strode, wife and young son, Willard Lee of Conroe; and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Straughan and daughter, Joan of Denton, and Miss Edith Strode of Denton. Joe W. Strode is a well-known attorney of Conroe, who was born and reared in this county. Mrs. Straughan is completing her work on her degree at C. I. A., Denton, while Miss Edith is a second year student in that same school.

M'KINNEY FRIEND LETTER FROM MISS VAUGHN

Mrs. Dan Scott is in receipt of a letter recently from her friend, Miss Marjorie Vaughn, who is now in nutrition work at Oklahoma ICty. She is an expert in her specialty, having served as a Red Cross nutritionist at various points over the country for a number of years.

She served a little more than a year in this county with headquarters at McKinney for the Red Cross. During that time, she rendered valuable service, especially through her contact and training of school children and instruction of their parents.

She left the Red Cross service after she closed her engagement at McKinney to go with the Wilford Grenfell association of Labrador with which concern she remained for more than a year, teaching the principles of nutrition and its value to the natives of that cold, barren northern section. Her work resulted in ameliorating the suffering of natives from scurvy and other ailments due to exclusive meat diet in that country where little vegetation or food products from the soil can possibly grow.

Miss Vaughn made numerous friends among both children and grown folks during her stay in McKinney and in this county, who would be glad to see her return again for a similar service among us.

Charles Bristol is out after a siege of the flu.

For Federal Dist. Attorney

HON. JEWELL E. ABERNATHY

J. E. ABERNATHY SEEKING U. S. DIST. ATTORNEY

Announcement has been made that Hon. Jewell E. Abernathy, popular McKinney attorney, will seek the position of United States district attorney for the eastern division of Texas.

Mr. Abernathy is a native of McKinney, being a member of the noted Abernathy family of this city, most of whom have been and are lawyers. He received his elementary and high school education here, graduating from the McKinney high school and later taking special work at the University of Texas. After his college days, he returned to McKinney, where he worked in the law office and studied under his uncle, the late William Abernathy, a successful lawyer at the local bar for many years and father of Hon. W. R. Abernathy and grandfather of W. P. Abernathy, both now prominent McKinney attorneys.

After his admittance to the bar he commenced the active practice here and soon built up an excellent practice. During the last twenty years he has served as assistant county attorney for several years and then as county attorney for four years. It was in these capacities that he made a record rarely equaled and not surpassed by any other county attorney in the state.

After retiring as county attorney two years ago, he became a member of the law firm of Truett, Abernathy & Wolford, one of McKinney's best known law firms, his partners being Hon. L. J Truett, former county attorney, and Judge A. M. Wolford, former count yattorney, and also county judge for four years.

Jewell Abernathy stands high in the esteem of the general public of our entire county. He is and has always been a real Democrat of the old school, and like his father, the late M. G. Abernathy, who served as county judge of Collin county for about five terms, has been a fighting Democrat all along. During the prenational convention campaign of last year, Mr. Abernathy was chairman of the Collin county Garner forces.

Appointment of the United States district attorney for this division of Texas will probably be made soon after the inauguration of Roosevelt and Garner on March 4. In event of his appointment, Mr. Abernathy will represent the United States government in the federal courts at Sherman, Paris, Texarkana, Jefferson, Tyler, and Beaumont. In event he is so honored, his nu-

T. M. Walker is Given Dinner On Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Lonsford entertained with a family dining on New Year's day, the celebration being in honor of T. M. Walker, father of Mrs. Lonsford, who was celebrating his birthday. Nine were present for the happy affair, a most sumptuous and delicious dinner being served at noon, consisting of turkey, baked ham, and all accessories. The large dining table was attractively decorated for the occasion.

Those present to enjoy the day were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lonsford, of Corsicana, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ridgell and son Horace Jr. of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richardson and three children, Dorothy, Billie, and Harold, all of Dallas; Miss Lola Mae Edgar, Miss Ted Harwell, G. A. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Lonsford, and daughters, Misses Mildred and Virginia.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS NAME OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR

The Royal Neighbors of America met Monday night, Jan. 2, in the I. O. O. F. hall to elect new officers. There was a large attendance of members, two visitors being present. They were Emma J. Brannon, district deputy of Denison, and the recorder of the Denison camp.

Officers elected were Lela Forshee, oracle; Clara Edgar, vice oracle; Myrtle Warden, oracle; Ada Odle, chancellor; Minnie Holder, recorder: Tinnie Creason, receiver; Lena Snider, Marshal; Velma Enloe, assistant marshal; Pearl Gee, musician.

MRS. LYMAN DAVIS GAVE READINGS NEW YEAR'S DAY

Walter B. Wilson, one of the editors of this paper, wife, and the latter's sister, Mrs. Florence Warden, spent New Year's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Snyder in Sherman. We attended the Sunday school and regular 11 o'clock services at the Travis Street Methodist church there, of which Dr. O. T. Cooper is pastor. The latter preached a splendid sermon, specially suited to New Year's. At the preliminary devotional exercises of singing and reading of the big Sunday school class of men in their own building on the church yard known as the Judge Allie Noble class, we were very proud of the two readings given by Mrs. Lyman Davis, a McKinney born and reared young woman. She was formerly Miss Jean Finch, daughter of Senator and Mrs. H. A. Finch of this city. She and her husband have been living in Sherman for several years, where her husband, who is a son of Judge H. L. Davis of McKinney, is prominent in both civic and business circles. Mrs. Davis is quite a gifted reader. Her part on the program was greatly appreciated by the big class of men present as was evidenced by their generous applause and encore.

L. R. Mitchell, Lee Gilmer and Albert Suttle of the Prosper community were in the city Monday on business. Mr. Mitchell gave us a call and renewed his subscription to the Weekly Democrat-Gazette for another year, for which we thank him.

Applicant U. S. Dist. Attorney

JUDGE GEORGE P. BROWN of McKinney

GEORGE P. BROWN APPLICANT FOR APPOINTMENT

Judge George P. Brown is seeking the appointment as United States district attorney for the eastern district of Texas under the incoming national Democratic administration. If his ambition is gratified, he will represent the United States government at the federal courts of Beaumont, Tyler, Jefferson, Texarkana, Paris, and Sherman.

Mr. Brown is not a stranger by any means to the duties of the important position that he is seeking as he served several years as assistant United States district attorney of this same district under the late United States District Attorney R. C. Merritt and another chief incumbent in that office. His excellent record as assistant during his several years, service then, has caused his friends to urge his application as chief in the position.

George P. Brown is a native born Collin man. His father, the late Robert H. Brown of Plano, served on the board of county commissioners during several years of his honored, useful life.

George P. Brown was reared on a farm, but he was ambitious for an education which he received largely by his own initiative and efforts He taught school for several years, then studied law and was admitted to the bar. Ever since, he has been an active attorney at the McKinney bar.

He was twice elected county attorney of this county and ably served in that capacity. He is regarded as one of Collin county's most scholarly and eloquent public speakers and orators. He is widely sought after as a public speaker in religious, fraternal, civic, and political circles.

He has always been a regular loyal Democrat whose voice has often been heard on the rostrum in behalf of the principles and candidates of that party.

No fear is felt whatever by his many friends and acquaintances throughout the eastern district of Texas but that the federal government will have its interest committed to most competent hands if George P. Brown should be the recipient of the appointment at the hands of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, which appointment it is expected that the latter will be called on to make in the early weeks after his inauguration March 4.

Judge Brown's ancestors came to Collin county prior to the Civil war from the state of Virginia. His forbears were early colonial

M'KINNEY "B" TEAM DEFEATS MELISSA LADS

The McKinney "B" squad cycloned the Melissa Class B team Monday night at the city coliseum to the tune of 32 to 14. The visitors were clearly outplayed as the score at the end of the quarter stood 13 to 0. Coach Hollis then made several substitutions in his lineup and Melissa was able to tally a few points before the half ended. At the beginning of the last half an entirely new team went on the floor for the locals which lasted under a bombardment of shots by Melissa in the third quarter, still holding a lead of eight points. High scorers for the game were Forshee, McKinney, and Porter, Melissa, with seven points each.

This was the first of a long series of games that the McKinney squad will play during this month. Friday night the first and second teams will meet opposition from the Bailey high school basketeers on the local court, while Friday night the Denison Yellowjackets will invade the lair of the local squads. Other games on the schedule so far that will be played soon, are Oak Cliff (Dallas), Farmersville, Celina, Sherman, and several games with Denton, Dallas Tech, and Highland Park are being planned.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bull were visiting in the county seat Monday. While here they called by this office, ordering the Daily Courier-Gazette continued to their address for the coming year. They reside on Route 1, McKinney.

Prof. H. E. Robinson, superindenent of the public school at Ponder, Denton county, sends renewal cash to the Weekly Democrat-Gazette for another year in advance. Prof. Robinson is a leading young Texas educator, formerly of this county.

MAGNOLIA CAMP W. O. W. INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

Meador, clerk and financial secretary; Marvin Walker, escort; Ernest Hankins, watchman; Jess Lain, sentry; Charley Nelson, manager for three years; Dr. P. D. Robason, physician.

The Magnolia camp was glad to have Bill Tidwell of Bonham, North Texas deputy, present, who made them a nice talk.

CHINESE CLAIM SHANHAIKWAN IS STILL HELD

Conflicting accounts told today of hostilities between Japanese troops and the Chinese garrison of the walled city of Shanhaikwan.

From Tokio, reports to the Rengo news agency told of the capture of the city, which is within the great wall of China, by Japanese and the retirement of the Chinese defenders to Chinwantao, ten miles away.

Chinese sources in both Nanking and Peiping contradicted these reports, and stated that the garrison was holding against a Japanese bombardment.

Miss Bernice Chandler of Chambersville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Obe McCollom for a day or two.

Collin county expects to contribute her full share to recovery of depressed conditions during the good year, 1933.

Mix up some Christmas spirit in your every day life. Speak a kind word as you go along. It will make you happier as well as other people.

People are appreciated most after they die—that is in most instances. By common consent, faults are forgotten and good traits are magnified in both quality and qantity.

We have had a wonderful fall as to weather with the exception of about three weeks of unusually cold, wet, rainy, snowy and freezing weather just before Christmas.

Snap Shots says that as a general thing, when man says grace at the table, it is right that the woman should wash the dishes.

If possible, give somebody employment no matter how small the job may be. Do your bit to help overpower Old Man Depression.

Woods occupy a larger part of the farms of this country than does any other crop; in fact as much as all the cereal crops combined.

The immediate duty of congress is very simple. All it has to do is cut about a billion dollars from the budget without offending anybody.—Ennis News.

Start the new year with firm determination to do right, live right and treat other people right. Then this old world will be a better one to live in.

Don't worry if some people say unkind words about you. That, at least, proves that you are worth talking about. He who has no knockers is merely drifting with the tide and getting nowhere.

This really is a good time for young men to marry. A girl makes a better wife if she starts housekeeping while her husband has a depressed salary.—Claude Callan in Star-Telegram.

The meanest man we have ever heard of was one who ran over a pedestrian and yelled to him, "while you are under the car, please see if my radius rods are all right."—Denison Herald.

A babe was recently born to rural parents. When little brother first gazed at the newcomer, he asked, "Daddy, what did Sears, Roebuck Company charge for it?" Moral—patronize home merchants and home industries.

A merchant who gives every visitor in his store a smile and cordial welcome will find that his business will pick up. This is especially true if you use some newspaper publicity to invite them to your store.

The McKinney Courier-Gazette, edited by Tom W. Perkins and Walter B. Wilson, says Collin county has made three big crops this year—sweet potatoes, persimmons and opossums. What more does an eating loving people want?—Sherman Democrat.

Prof. W. S. Smith heads the Collin County Red Cross chapter for 1933. A fine selection. No better could have been made. Prof. Smith's life has been one of unremitting service to mankind—physically, intellectually, morally and spiritually.

Hogs and corn are both plentiful and dirt cheap. Every farmer should put up a plentiful meat and lard supply under these conditions to run him for the ensuing year. He should also provide a supply of pigs and young shoats for his next winter's killing hogs.

An excellent quality of fountain pen ink is being manufactured from his own formula by K. D. Thompson of McKinney. It is a superior quality for fountain pens and general use, free flowing and without sediment. It has withstood durability tests that presages a popular staple product on a permanent and steadily growing market.

The McKinney Courier-Gazette, edited by Tom W. Perkins and Walter B. Wilson, says: "The only way on earth for this government to continue to be solvent is to cut its expenses and live more economically." And that reminds us that the city of McKinney, of which Editor Perkins is mayor, is setting the national government a fine example along that line.—Sherman Democrat.

President Howard S. Ware of the local Chamber of Commerce voices the appreciation of every member of that organization when he praises the school teachers of our city for their civic pride and progressiveness. Practically every teacher has membership in the organization of which he is the head, again for next year. The Chamber of Commerce never ceases in working for the best interests of our modern little city and great agricultural county. Therefore, it is a booster and supporter of good schools because no interest is more vital than schools. Such cooperation bodes well for the future of our city in which harmony prevails and teamwork prevails among its citizens and groups.

Be loyal to your friends. Never double cross them.

McKinney streets were lifted out of the mud about twenty years ago. The old town has patted itself on the back ever since for that progressive movement. Paved streets and paved roads are doubly appreciated during such slushy, snowy seasons as we are having this winter.

According to the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., indications point to a 1933 winter wheat crop of less than 400,000,000 bushels as compared with 462,151,000 bushels for 1932. The crop sown this fall totals 39,902,000 acres or 98.7 per cent of the acreage sown in the fall of 1931. Condition of the crop on December 1 was 68.9 per cent of a normal compared with 79.4 per cent a year ago and 83.3 per cent for the ten year average of 1920-29 period.

Considerable flour has been milled in McKinney by the Collin County Mill & Elevator company on orders of the American National Red Cross for distribution to the poor in various parts of Texas. This flour is made of wheat bought by the Farm Board a year or two ago and which was appropriated for the relief of the poor by the United States Congress. President Gibson Caldwell of the big McKinney mill shipped out a car of this flour one day last week to Waxahachie for distribution in Ellis County.

"Texas Curio Den," Col. G. J. S. Walker, proprietor, is a McKinney showplace. It is a collection of relics handed down from past generations. Col. Walker has spent much labor and money in assembling it. He recently added to his collection a flintlock pistol made in France in 1763, which was given him by B. S. Hollimon, superintendent of the Dallas division of the Southern Pacific Lines of Ennis, Texas. His collection of old guns and pistols is a rare one; also of polished horns from various animals. You should see it. He charges no admission fee and invites everybody to see his collection.

A splendid Christmas donation was given for charity work by the pupils of the J. H. Hill (Central) Ward school, of which Prof. W. T. McCasland is principal. Instead of exchanging presents among themselves, the children decided that, on account of unemployment and want prevailing due to the depression that they would forego their own childish gifts and bestow substantial food products on the less unfortunate families and children of their city. This is an exhibition of childish sacrifices that portend a nobler race in the oncoming generation.

Considering tax reform, a few fundamentals should be taken into consideration, says Esq. John Stinebaugh of Farmersville. Texas is an agricultural state and its welfare depends upon the prosperity of the toiling masses on the farms. The farmer can not continue to pay taxes if he is compelled to produce below the cost of production. If an ad valorem tax is assessed against his land it should be based upon productive and not speculative value. In our present age ownership is a curse, and not a blessing. A state ad valorem tax is an absurity. It can not be justly and equally administered.

The House of Representatives voted on Speaker Garner's beer bill, December 21, which carried by a vote of 230 to 165. Texas Congressmen voting for the 3.2 per cent bill under consideration were Buchanan, Cross, Dies, Mansfield and Thomason. Against—Blanton, Briggs, Jones, Lanham, Patman, Rayburn, Sanders and Sumners. Paired for the bill, Kleberg. Paired against, Johnson and Williams. Speaker Garner does not get a vote except to break a tie. The bill now goes to the Senate for adoption or rejection. If it passes the Senate, the bill will then have to run the gauntlet of President Hoover's approval or disapproval.

Dallas Chamber of Commerce has elected as its head for 1933, R. L. Thornton, president of the Mercantile Bank and Trust Company, long an active leader in civic affairs and now president of Industrial Dallas, Inc. When Thornton was a young man, he lived in McKinney for a year or two when he was engaged as a dry goods clerk in the old Mississippi store. Mr. Thornton is now president of one of the largest banks in the state and is looked upon as, not only a successful banker, but also as one of the most capable business men of the entire state. He is a splendid public speaker, who has been heard on several occasions in addresses here at McKinney in recent years. These papers congratulate Dallas on having Bob Thornton to lead its Chamber of Commerce to greater victories during the coming year. He has a host of admirers and friends throughout Collin county.

Ex-Mayor Louis Blaylock of Dallas, who died recently, left an estate valued at more than $1,000,000. He was publisher of the Texas Christian Advocate, organ of the Southern Methodist church in the Southwest for about fifty years. He was the first Dallas printer to use a linotype machine for setting type. He made most of his wealth in the printing and publishing and in real estate investments. He also served several years as mayor of Dallas.

Transplanting Bermuda onions in the Laredo district is completed. The crop is said to be in the best condition in many years, plants having come out of the seed beds in excellent condition and having been freed of insects by the cold weather. The acreage of that noted Texas onion producing district is estimated at 2,100 acres. Marketing starts in that district early in April. The Laredo Bermuda onion crop last year, from 1,000 carloads shipped, total around $1,000,000.

Judge Wallace Hughston of McKinney, recently elected Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas, was the honor guest of his home lodge at a celebration of the event at Plano; also, of the Lions Club at McKinney of which he is an active member and at other similar functions in this part of the state. He is the daily recipient of invitations to speak and visit in every part of the state, comparatively few of which he can accept because of his extensive law practice. Judge Hughston has been an active Mason for thirty-five years. He has gradually been advanced in the attainments and honors of the ancient fraternity in the state until now he has reached the highest place of honor. He is a native of this county. His ninety-one-year-old father, Capt. T. F. Hughston of Plano, was made a Mason in Alabama, sixty-seven years ago, paying his initiation fee in Confederate money. This veteran Plano citizen and Mason was present at the Grand Lodge meeting in the early part of the present month at Waco and witnessed the election and installation of his son as Grand Master, a privilege that few fathers had ever before done in the history of Texas Masonry, which now includes nearly 1100 lodges and approximately 140,000 members. The Texas Grand Lodge is co-existent with the independence of Texas, having been organized in 1936, the same year that the state threw off the Mexican yoke and became a Republic. The recent Grand Lodge session at Waco was the ninety-seventh annual communication. In all that long period, Judge Hughston is the second Collin county Mason to become Grand Master, the other one having been the late Sam R. Hamilton, veteran Farmersville business man and author of Hamilton's Masonic Manuel, who served about thirty-five years ago.

LOTS OF BEER.

A statement of Senator Tydings of Maryland in the News of Dec. 7, estimated a tax of 1 cent a glass or 2 cents a pint on beer would return $200,000,000 in taxes yearly.

The writer undertook to figure the amount of beer the nation would have to consume. Figures are confusing on so large a scale. asking a few questions will require less mental effort.

If beer is consumed on such quantities, what is to become of the soft drink manufacturer, ice cream manufacturer and candy manufacturer? A brief study of these industries shows their marvelous growth since prohibition. Is it any wonder that liquor traffic wishes to reclaim this business? If the masses consume beer in the quantities that Senator Tydings suggests, would not industry pay an enormous price for $200,000,000 taxes?

Not even the enemies of prohibition want the saloon back. Then where do they propose to consume such enormous quantities? In the homes? On the highways in high-powered cars? In drug stores, clubs and hotels? If legalized liquor is not put in saloons—where it belongs, how can parents warn their sons and daughters against a foe that the youth of today is not prepared to combat?

Even animals make some preparations before launching a new being into the world. Would not congress be wise to make more provisions for this "moral and economic savior" of our nation. before launching it to the perils of a youth that has not been restrained, a nation that is torn and bleeding from economic chaos, and political and spiritual confusion?

If our friends wish moral freedom, why don't they insist on being allowed to purchase narcotics, when in pain, or to carry a pistol for their enemies, or drive their cars as fast as they wish or send any kind of literature through the mail? Of course, absolute freedom is a good worthy to strive for, but not for this generation and perhaps future generations.

DEWEY GAMBLE LOCATED IN NEW BUSINESS HOME

Announcement was made here Sunday by Dewey Gamble, a well-known young McKinney business man, that he had taken over the store occupied by the Skillerns drug store here for the last several years on the northwest corner of the public square. Mr. Gamble and his wife have already assumed charge of their new location and have completed removal of their former stock into the new business home—which will continue to be known "Gamble's."

Mr. and Mrs. Gamble have been in the confectionery business in McKinney for several years, for many years operating the "Olympia" on the west side of the square and later operating the same confectionery under the firm name of "Gamble's."

With the assumption of the Skillern stock and fixtures, and with all their old stock and helpers retained, Mr. Gamble says that he feels sure his new store will be able to keep up their motto of "Just a Little Better Service."

Mr. Gamble also announces that he will not only sell everything in the confectionery line, but will also handle a complete line of drugs. This is an ideal location and Mr. and Mrs. Gamble are being congratulated for their progressiveness.

J. W. Uselton, former manager of the Skillerns drug store here, is staying over a few days, helping Mr. Gamble complete the removal of his stock into the old Skillerns stand.

Arthur Nunn, assistant manager of the Skillerns drug store here, has gone back to Dallas to take over a position with one of the Skillerns stores there, since Dewey Gamble bought out the old Skillerns stand here.

Mr. Gamble invites his many friends and patrons to visit them in their new business home and solicits a portion of your business.

Austin Powell, well-known young McKinney man, has accepted a position with the A. C. Bullock garage and filling station, corner North Church and West Virginia streets. He is experienced in this line of work, and invites his many friends here and over the county to visit him in his new location.

Mrs. Ben Hill, who has been ill at her home for some three weeks, is much better, we are pleased to learn. This will be [illegible]

N. D. READY AND DEPUTIES ARE BUSY AT WORK

N. D. READY.

County Tax Collector N. D. Ready, with his corps of assistants, went to work Monday in the courthouse after being duly sworn into office. Mr. Ready, who has had several years' experience as deputy in the office, had things "humming" in a few minutes.

Mr. Ready's assistants were also sworn in as follows: A. T. Raper, chief deputy; J. R. Holloway Jr. of Farmersville, and Miss Archie Thompson of McKinney. regular deputies.

Other helpers in the office. whom this editor met in his rounds, were W. A. Pace of Westminster, Fred Greenwood of Prosper, Mrs. Faye Snider and W. D. Smith Jr., both of McKinney.

These well-trained, efficient hard-working officials should render a successful two years' service in this important county office. We wish them much luck.

J. Maston Gay came in from Sudan, West Texas, to spend the holidays with his family in McKinney. He is manager of the large W. B. Newsome landholdings in Lamb and Bailey counties. He states that they have had lots of rain and snow out there and that roads are very wet and slippery to travel over. His son, Newsome Gay, a commercial artist of Chicago, is also here spending his holiday vacation with homefolks. Newsome is a graduate of the McKinney high school, whose natural talent as an artist is being developed under the ablest of teachers and practical training in our nation's second largest city.

Had a chat with that prince of good fellows—John W. Cox, of Roland. Long known and liked him. Mighty fine man.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

J. F. HARRINGTON.

This editor, in his rounds of the courthouse early yesterday, found County Judge J. Frank Harrington and the four county commissioners—J. Wilson Spain, A. N. Burton, Frank Kerby, and Don O. Davis—busily engaged in the duties of their official position.

The new court was on the job at 7 o'clock Monday morning and, after inauguration into office and their bonds approved by the outgoing court, immediately set to the task of inducting into office other newly-elected county and precinct officials.

"We are getting off to a splendid start," Judge Harrington said, "and it will be our great desire to serve the people of Collin county faithfully, diligently, courteously, and to the best of our ability. We wish for each and every resident of our fine county a happy and prosperous new year and you can count on us doing our best to aid in any way possible the county as a whole as well as its individual citizens."
